Corporate Communion is held monthly on the first Sunday after our Council meeting. Our priest has given us permission to handle All aspects of the mass.

-Procession includes our alter servers, readers, ushers, our banner guard, and members walking side to side up the aisle.

-- This procession allows our fellow parishioners an opportunity to see us a Catholic leaders.

-Seating is reserved for members and family.

--Allows us to promote Building a Domestic Church by sitting together and leaving in a procession with our family.

-Fellow Knights perform Eucharistic Minister duties.

-At closing, Grand Knight is given time to present The Family and Knight of the Month Award, and mention information about our Council.

-Doughnuts and coffee is provided by our Council every month after our Corporate mass.

--Allows us to get together with fellow parishioners to promote fraternity and our Council.

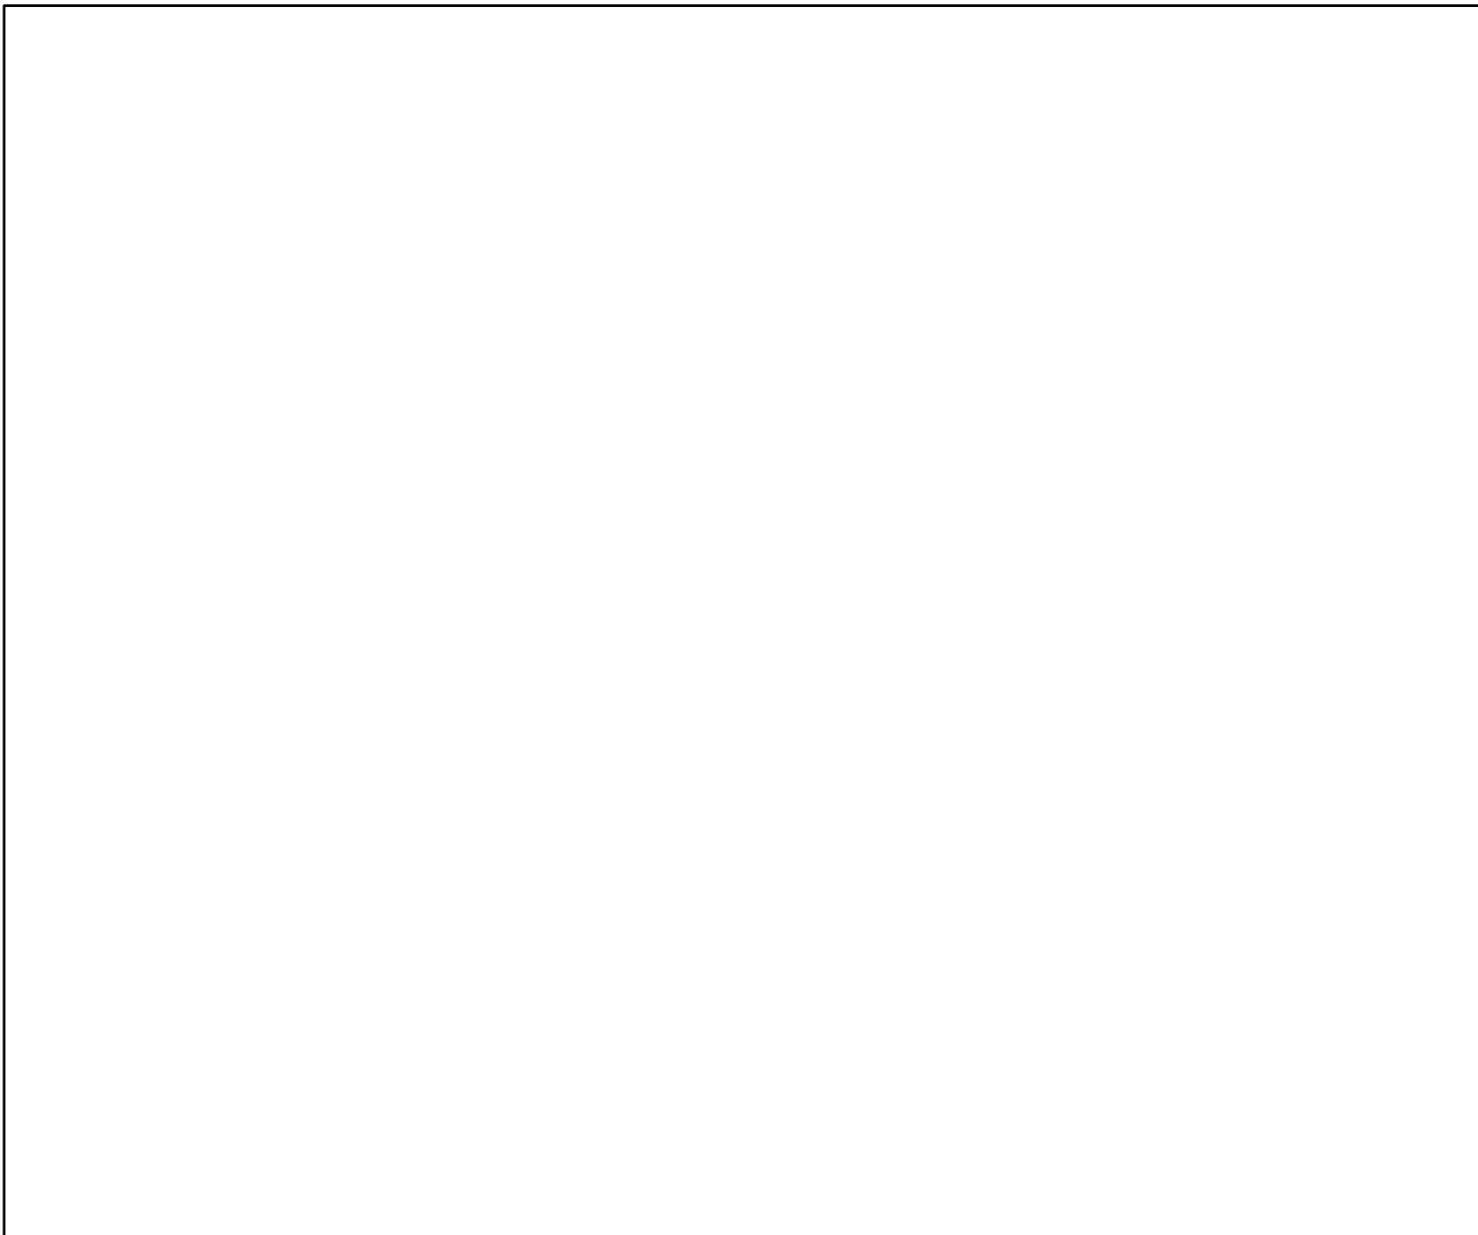

This mass is well attended by members and parishioner. Shows that we have the support from our parish.
